

(Please scroll down for the English version)

---

2014 6 1

2014 10 1

The Cool Connection

The Supply Chain Finance Community is proud to introduce _____ to create awareness and stimulate development in the topic of Supply Chain Finance. This contest aims at identifying the best student talents and connecting them to the corporate sector at an international level.

Commencing from June 1 2014, qualification period begins where participating teams will have the opportunity to attend 3 qualification rounds in a remote web-based format of _____. Registration for the competition & professor endorsement should be completed by _____. Deadline to complete National qualification rounds is _____.

- < Each team consist of 4 full time students in their pre-final or final year of study.
- < The teams must be endorsed by a professor from their own university or business school.
- < Any number of team can register for the National qualification rounds but a maximum of two teams from each Business School/University can participate in the Global Competition rounds.
- < In case more than two teams from a business school/university qualify for the Global Competition rounds, it is up to discretion of each business school/university to decide the two representative teams.

A teacher can simply endorse the team(s) by registering on the Global Student Challenge website. After endorsement a student can register or pre-registered students can complete their profile by linking it to this endorsement.

The teams have complete freedom in when they play the 3 qualification rounds as long as it's completed by the deadline. In order to qualify the team must achieve a positive Return on Investment (ROI) in at least one of the three rounds.

The registration does not impose any obligation but it assures that teachers/students become part of the information flow of the further process. You can register here on the Global Student Challenge website.

If you have any other questions please do not hesitate to contact us and connect with us on Facebook. We look forward to your participation in the Global Student Challenge!

Kind regards,